

CSC-192 Seminar #1 : Resume Work-Shop/Job Search Strategies

Speaker: Voun Sa, Dir. of ECS Career Services

Date: 2/2/24

(Please write in full sentences)

Q1: Services offered by ECS Career Services?

The ECS Career Servicer center offers a wide variety of services' such as Resume building, Job searching strategies, workshops, career fairs ... etc.

Q2: List Key Resume Do's & Don'ts discussed in the Seminar?

Some resume Do's & Don'ts discussed in the seminar were. Do structure your resume work history in reverse-chronological order. Don't put a certificate you haven't earned on your resume. Don't put your GPA if its below a 3.0. If you have a github with projects on it, do put it on your resume.

Q3: List steps to take for the ECS Career Fair (Before/During/After)?

Before the career fair update your handshake or Linked in profile. Research the companies and practice your elevator pitch. The day of the career fair, its important to dress nice and bring plenty of resumes with you. After the career fair be sure to follow up with employers and even connect with them on Linked in.

Q4: List the ECS career fair dates for Spring '24 (In-person & virtual)?

The in person career fair will be on Feb 23rd and the virtual one will be on March 8th.

Q5: Reasons for having a LinkedIn Profile?

A LinkedIn profile is a great way to connect with employers. Some employers even offer jobs on LinkedIn. It is also a great way to showcase your personal projects that may lead to a job offer

Q6: What is Handshake? Benefits of signing up in Handshake?

Handshake is a resources available to Sac State students and alumni. Handshake is an app for finding jobs, especially for college students and recent graduates. Companies post jobs and they are specifically looking for sac state college students to hire. The biggest benefits is the opportunity to find a job or internship. There is also a profile section where you can add a picture, a bio and your recent course work. Career fairs and other events are advertised on handshake.